Vision

Encourage greater awareness and mutual support of the military, business and civic communities through engagement and education.

Mission

Promote military, business and civic success through involvement and mutual support of mission and goals.

Goals

- Educate Council members on the 128th ARW's mission and challenges
- Promote the 128th ARW mission in policy and program development, business and civic community
- Advocate the mutual benefits of supporting the military, business and civic communities

Why Join the Council?

First and foremost, we believe it is our duty to support the brave men and women in our armed forces. They risk their lives so that we may live free from foreign threats.

Secondly, our long lasting and mutually beneficial relationship has an estimated $32 million economic impact on our local economy. This means both the greater Milwaukee area and the 128th ARW, must rely on each other for economic growth and wellbeing.
